MEMPHIS DOUGHBOYS FORGOT TO BE HOMESICK IN HOSPITABLE HOME

ROBERT LEE DUNN'S HOL LIS PARK GARDENS HOME.

Many a Memphis boy, waiting at Camp Mills, near New York city, for transport to the battle zones of France and Belgium, was at least temporarily relieved of his homesick feeling by the kinelly hospitality of Robert Lee Dunn, a former Memphian, who for the past year has entertained every Memphis soldier he could find in his handsome home at Hollis Park Gardens, Hollis, N. Y., 15 miles from the metropolis and 10 from the camp.

This is the result of Mr. Dunn's having carried the spirit of Southern hospitality, which was in his residence in Memphis, through a residence of nearly 20 years in the East. He considered it a fine opportunity to get to act

Problem to Care for Germans In Occupied Area Is Serious.

Inspector-Gen, Chamberlain, of the war department, today telegraphed Attorney Harry B. Miller that he would send an inspector from his office here at once to probe the death of George Edward Lawson, of this city, formerly of Mountain Home, Ark., who was arrested here as an army deserter and killed by a sentinal at Fort Thomas while trying to escape. Officials of the war department three weeks ago; assected that the arrest grew out of mistaken identity. COBLENZ, March 26. (By the Assoing food to Germans within occupied areas has been investigated by various military commands of the allied arm in Germany, and it is expected within a few days supplies will be received for distribution. So far as the American area is concerned, the problem is seeing that $50,000 Germans within the occupied zone receive sufficient food to maintain bodily health and vigor.

A census of food supplies revealed at that rations and supplies for only 700 persons up to Sept. I existed throughout the area. The authorities believe, however, only about 75 per cent of actual supplies was reported as the concealing of food stocks has been going on quite extensively.

The immediate problem before America is to furnish supplies for 150,000 persons at rates so low even the poorest can make purchases. It is proposed to supply the civil governments with meats, fats and flour at the price charged in America, plus the cost of transportation, and then fix prices for retail sales.

It is expected as soon as supplies arin Germany, and it is expected withi COLDWATER, Miss., March 26. (Spi)—A bucking mule belonging to Ernest Lowrey broke its neck while trying to throw its owner. Young Lowrey had just traded for the animal, and was leaving town when the nule reared, and emitting a loud heelaw, fell and struck the ground with such force that it died at once. Lowrey was not hurt, and he went back to the traders he got the mule from and purchased the pony he had given in exchange for the ill-fated mule.

GOVERNOR BROUGH WILL DELIVER COLLEGE SPEECH

BLUE MOUNTAIN, Miss., March 26. (Spl.)—Gov. Charles H. Brough of Arkansas will deliver the annual commencement address before the 1949 senior class of Blue Mountain college on alumnae day, May 29. In accepting the invitation, Gov. Brough expressed keen pleasure in being asked to make a second graduating address here, having delivered the first before the 1901 senior class before moving from Mississippi. PADUCAH, Ky., March 26. (Spl.)— The First District Press association will be guests of the Retail Merchants' association when they meet here Fri-day of this week. Alben W. Barkley will make the address at the luncheon.

Brough, who began his career Gov. Brough, who began his career as a college professor on the faculty of Mississippi college while Dr. W. T. Lowrey was its president, attributes much of his success in life to his close association with Dr. Lowrey in his earlier days, and declared in his letter accepting the present invitation of Dr. Lowrey and the 1919 senior class here that he considered Blue Mountain college one of the most useful and influential colleges for young women to

RABBI CALLS ATTACKS ON PEACE LEAGUE COWARDLY

FORT WAYNE, Ind., March 28.—It is cowardly for anyone to criticise the league of oxtons and the work of the peace conference when they have nothing to offer as a substitute, declared Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, in an address here less night.

Continuing he said:

"President Wilson is the foremost, man in the world. He did not draw up the league of nations, but he is attempting to put it through for the future happiness of the world. The people of Europe are in accord with him and they cannot understand why his own people in America oppose him. Those who do so are actuated for the most part by politics and I am sorry to know that politics has crept into this great American and world question."
